

swiss mobility
conference

Between home care, home support and access to services. Aging at home : The paradoxes of “reverse mobility”

Entre vieillissement, maintien à domicile et accès aux services.
Les paradoxes d'une mobilité inversée.

Florent Cholat

PhD student in geography at LabEx ITeM - VIVEHab project
Pacte Laboratory at Grenoble Alpes Uni.
Sociology and Social Research Department of Milano Bicocca Uni.

Luc Gwiazdzinski

PhD in geography, lecturer at the Institute of Alpine Geography
Pacte Laboratory at Grenoble Alpes Uni.

Swiss Mobility Conference
October 20th, 2016 at Lausanne (CH)

« Everybody ageing ! »

What means « Ageing »?

Difficulties performing all daily tasks

Difficulty to move

To ensure « Healthy Ageing »

Retirement home

Hybrid solutions
Adaptation
Innovation

Home support

Who is coming ?

Why study the Alps ?

Slope system
Valley system
Distance to services

Weather
Season
Residential mobility

Swiss Mobility Conference
October 20th, 2016 at Lausanne (CH)

Study locations

Swiss Mobility Conference
October 20th, 2016 at Lausanne (CH)

Methods

Two-week immersion
in each village

Many semi-structured interviews

Partnerships for using databases

Use of GPS
tracking device

Number of human contacts

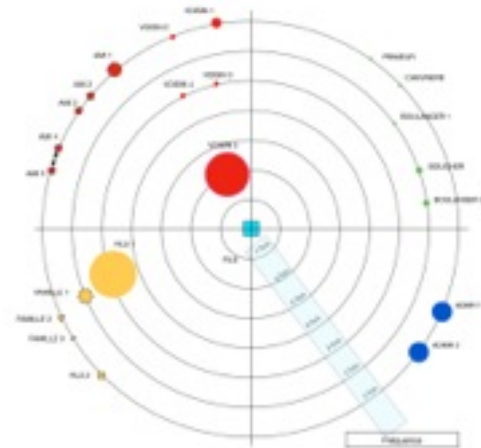

Chrono-geographic approach

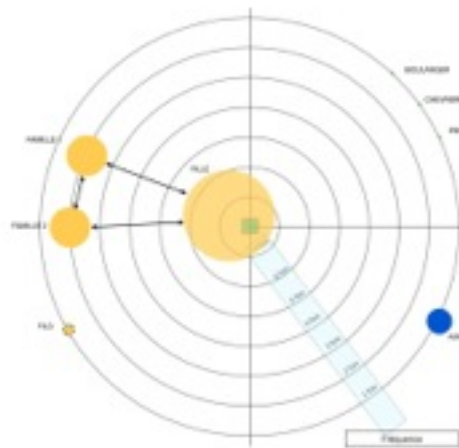

Chrono-geographic approach

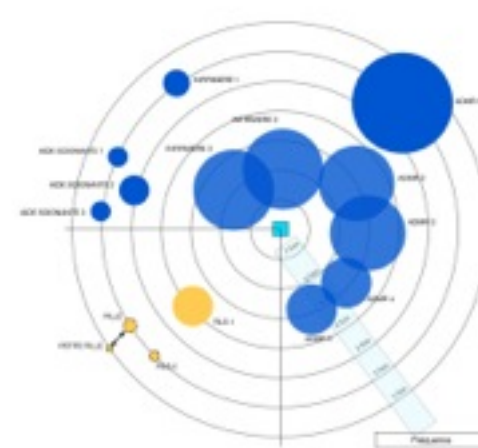

Chrono-géographie des échanges sociaux de Martine

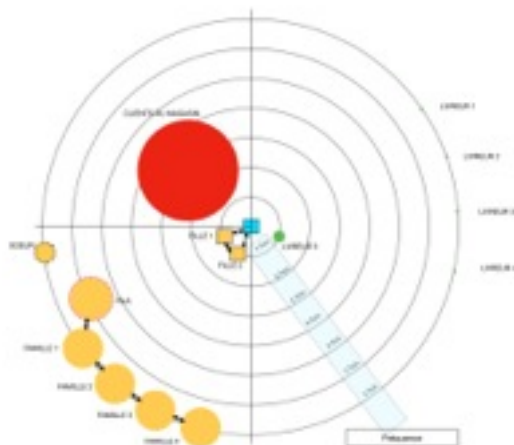

Chrono-géographie des échanges sociaux d'Yvette

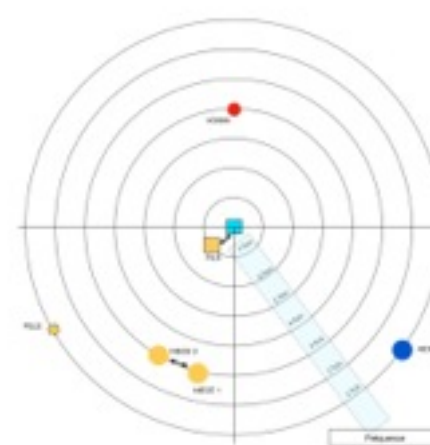

Chrono-géographie des échanges sociaux de Pierrette

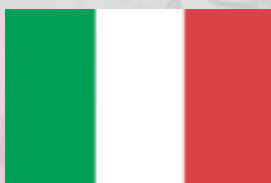

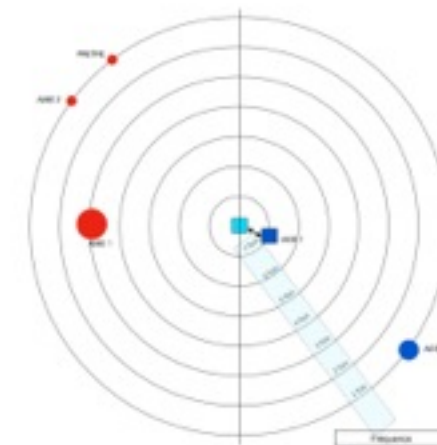

Chrono-géographie des échanges sociaux d'Anna

Chrono-géographie des échanges sociaux de Barbara

Chrono-géographie des échanges sociaux de Maria

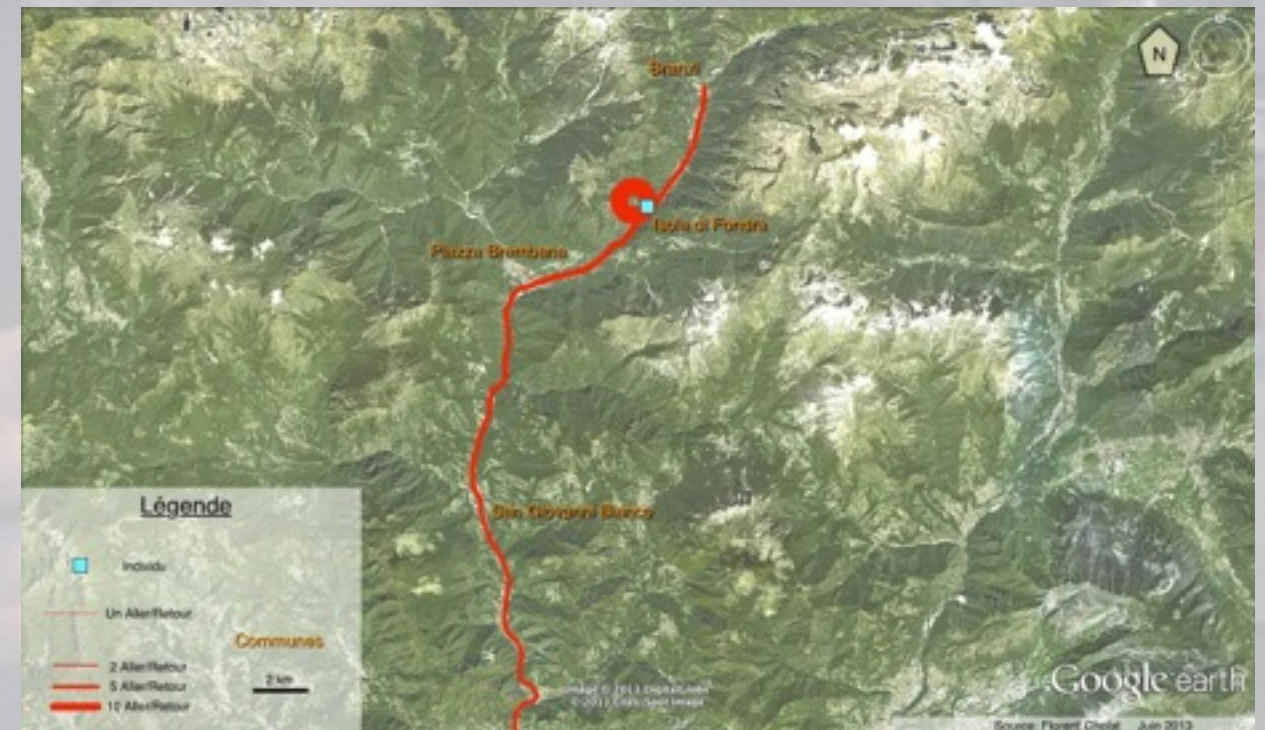

Mapping reversed mobilities

Entraigues, FRANCE

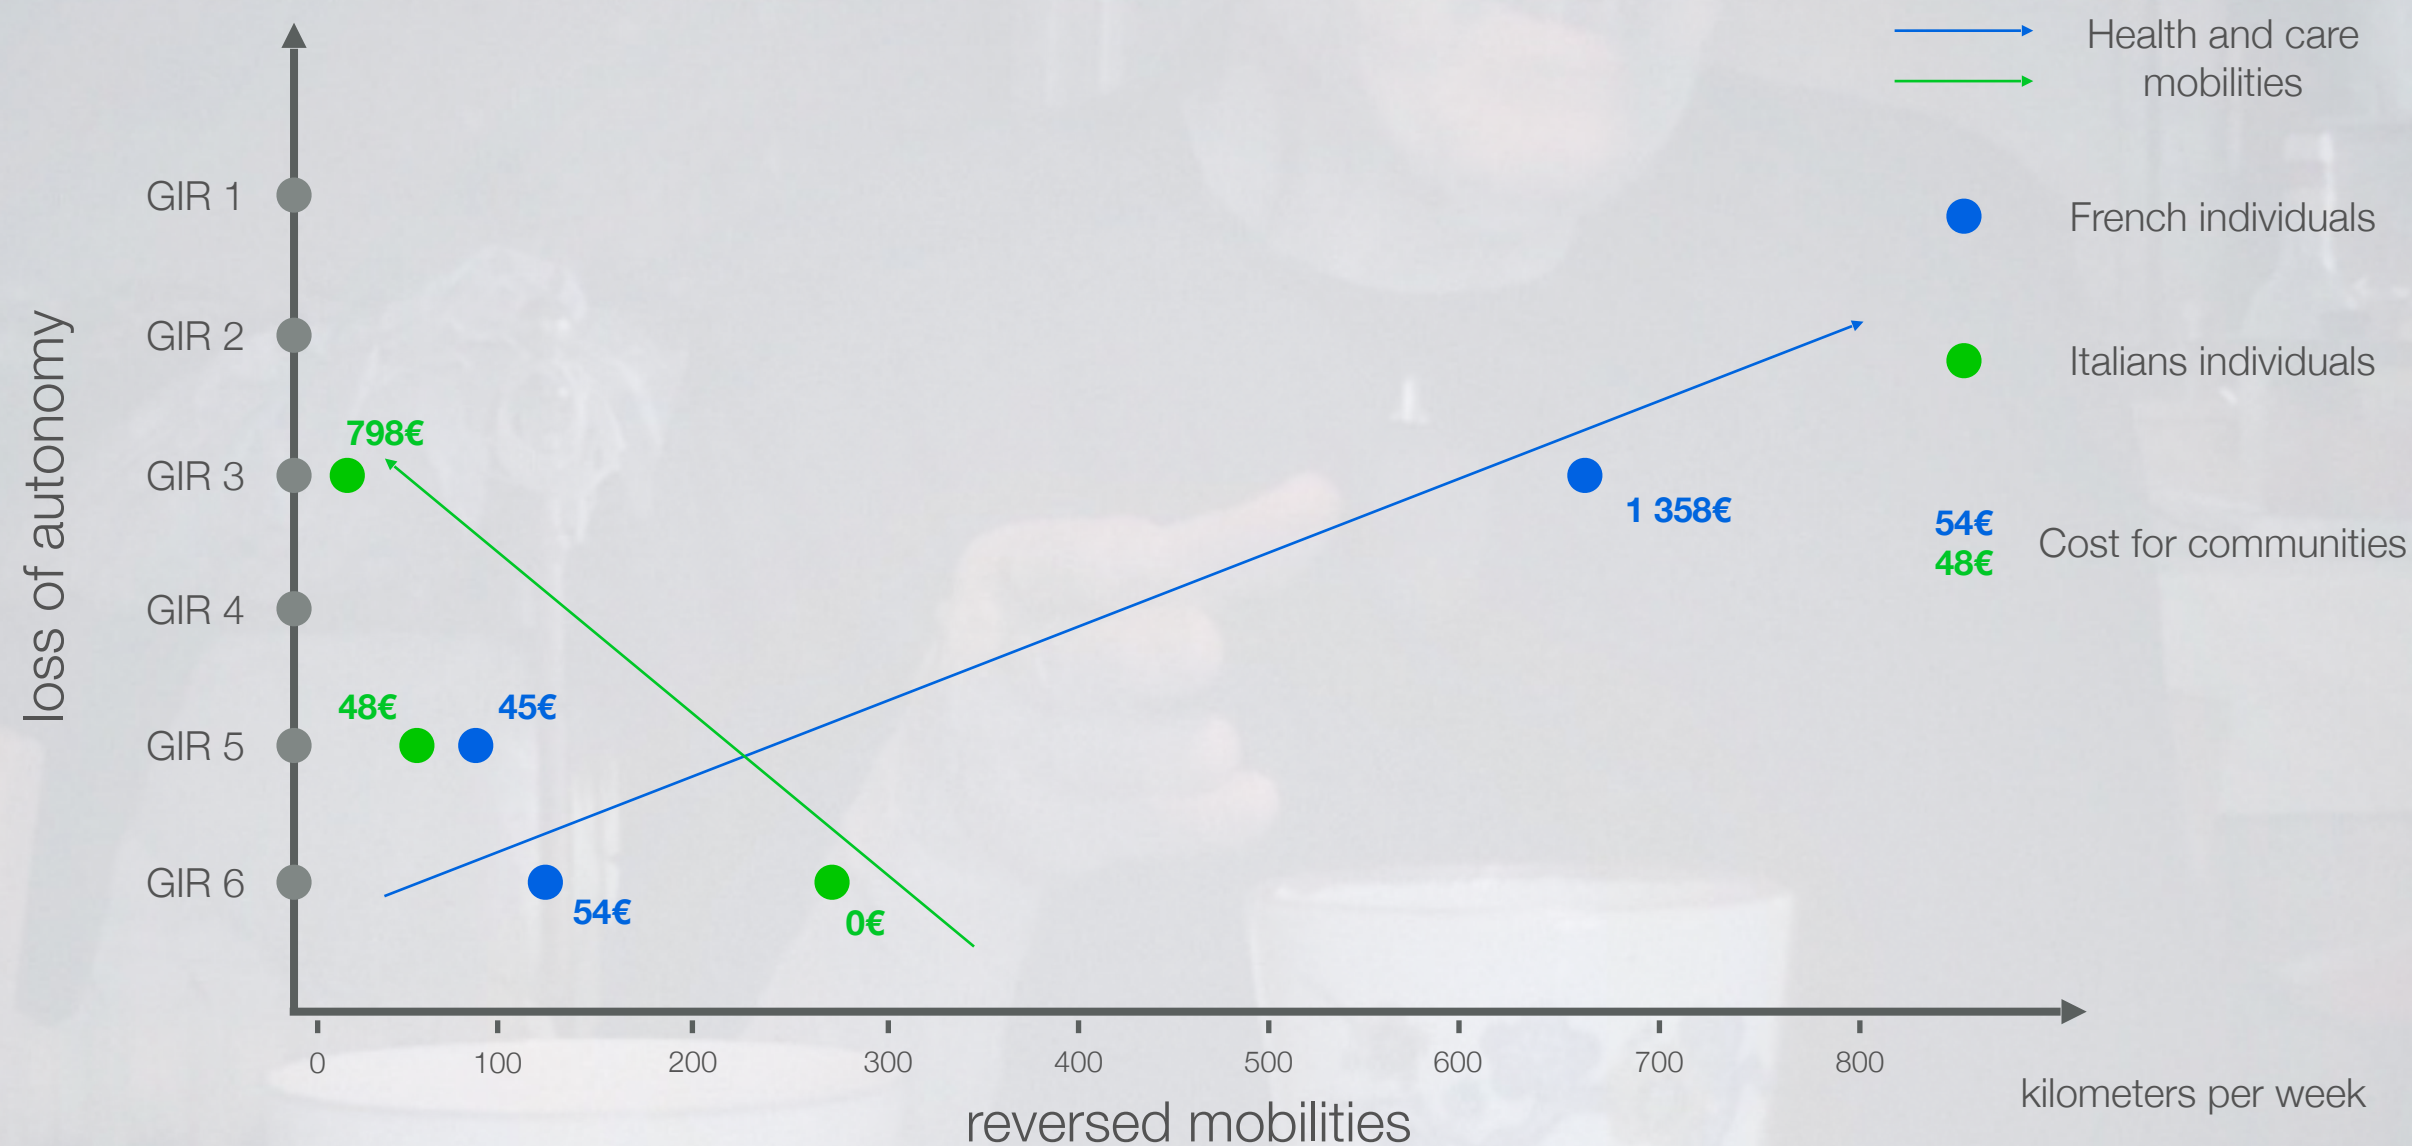

Isola di Fondra, ITALY

Swiss Mobility Conference
October 20th, 2016 at Lausanne (CH)

Link between the loss of autonomy and reversed mobilities

Negative impacts of reversed mobilities

Increased vulnerability for economic, environmental and social issues

Positive impacts of reversed mobilities

Social links

Economic benefits

Improvements

Increase the number of case studies

Experiment new methods and technologies

Open to other disciplines

Let me introduce « Marguerite »

Marguerite, 95 years

swiss mobility
conference

Thanks for your attention
Merci de votre attention
Grazie per la vostra attenzione

Florent Cholat

PhD student in geography at LabEx ITeM - VIVEHab project
Pacte Laboratory at Grenoble Alpes Uni.
Sociology and Social Research Department of Milano Bicocca Uni.

Phone : +33 (0)6 89 01 38 14
E-mail : florent.cholat@gmail.com

Swiss Mobility Conference
October 20th, 2016 at Lausanne (CH)

