

Invitation

International Workshop in International Commodity Law

Hosted at the University of Lausanne
Semester opening session of the LL.M. programme in International Economic and Commercial Law

In cooperation with FOKOS Siegen, the Europa-Institute at the University of Saarland and the Swiss Branch of the International Law Commission

ILA Swiss Branch

On the 26th of February 2016

Room 231 Internef, Dorigny Campus

Program

- 9:30 - 9:45 Opening and welcome address
- 9:45 - 10:30 “Introduction to the regulatory body of commodity law”
(Marc Bungenberg, Europa-Institut Saarbrücken; University of Lausanne)
- 10:30 - 11:15 “Liability of TNCs in commodity law, including tax law: an overview”
(Elisabeth Bürgi Bonanomi, CDE/WTI, University of Bern)
- 11:15 - 11:30 Coffee break
- 11:30 - 12:15 “Human Rights and commodity trade and extraction”
(Markus Krajewski, University of Erlangen)
- 12:30 - 14:00 Lunch break

14:00 - 14:45 “Mini-Panel” on “Commodities and Africa”

Two short presentations (10-15 min), followed by short debate (15 min)
(Moderated by Jean Marie Ehouzou, African Union; Clarence Siziba, WTI
Bern; Gsouma Faouzi, African Union)

14:45 - 15:30 “CSR in the commodity sector”
(Laurent Matile, SWISSAID)

15:30 - 15:45 Coffee break

15:45 - 17:15 “Transparency in the commodity sector – Global and European dimension”
(Maximilian Oehl, University of Lausanne)

Intervention NGO “Erklärung von Bern”: situation in Switzerland
(Marc Gueniat)

Reaction by DEZA (Werner Thut)

Reaction by private sector (Stéphane Graber, STSA)

Reaction by UNCTAD (Samuel Gayi)

17:15 -17:30 Concluding remarks & farewell

For further information please visit: <http://www.unil.ch/getactu/wwwllm/1448402347967/>

Registration via: llm@unil.ch

For further inquiries: maximilian.oehl@unil.ch