

Workplace communication: assessment and training

Monday, 24.11.2014

UNIL-Dorigny, Unicentre, room 511

- | | |
|-------|---|
| 8:45 | Pascal Singy (University of Lausanne)
Opening |
| 8:50 | Celia Roberts (King's College, London) & Sarah Atkins (University of Nottingham)
'Civil' and 'uncivil' partnerships: applying linguistic research with medical practitioners |
| 9:50 | Seraphina Zurbriggen, Pante Isaac & Pascal Singy (University of Lausanne)
Multilingualism and unemployment: A quantitative survey on Swiss HR-consultants in employment agencies and their representations |
| 11:00 | Orest Weber (Lausanne University Hospital)
Bridging the gap between research results and educational interventions in multilingual and multicultural medical specialty settings |
| 11:30 | Brikela Sulstarova (University of Fribourg)
How to talk about HIV/aids : the case of sub-Saharan migrant women in Switzerland |
| 13:30 | Deborah Swinglehurst (Queen Mary, University of London)
Using video-reflexive ethnography to explore IT-mediated consultations in the outpatient setting. Opportunities and challenges |
| 14:10 | Shuangyu Li (King's College, London)
Learning by analyzing - using linguistics and technology in undergraduate clinical communication education |
| 14:50 | Celia Roberts (King's College, London)
Closing |

Organizers : Pascal Singy, Orest Weber & Ana Terrier
Contact : anamaria.terrier@unil.ch

Financial support : CLSL and SSLI
(Faculty of Arts, University of Lausanne)