CLAD
Certification d'un niveau C1 de compétence linguistique dans le domaine académique pour les disciplines allemand, anglais, espagnol, français langue étrangère, italien à la fin du BA (CLAD)

Aide

Tableau de bord | Administration | Déconnecter Veronika Zoller

angl C1 écrit tout genre orthographe d1-d2

Editer la page

C1 écrit

tout genre

orthographe et ponctuation

descripteurs 1-2

l'orthographe est globalement correcte, même si quelques erreurs peuvent se produire occasionnellement	From the initial stage of the narrative structure of the text, Wringhim demonstrates his fascination and his growing dependence on Gil-Martin, who is constantly degrading him, and thereby explains his gradual loss of autonomy. The terminology used by Hogg via his narrator portrays a man in a state of manifest inferiority. From the outset, he fully perceives his mentor as his superior at any point. 'When he refers to him he uses reverential titles such as "prince," "sovereign," or "eminence" (p. 92-93), which proves his devotion and his relationship of subordination.	☒ ☒ ☒

la ponctuation est globalement correcte et marque de façon pertinente les transitions et les ruptures	For all requirements look at: The English Department Guide to Essay-Writing: EDGE www.unil.ch/angl → BA → resources → EDGE http://www.unil.ch/angl/angl/resources or consult: http://grammar.ccc.commnet.edu/grammar/marks/marks.htm	☒ ☒ ☒