

SWISS DAY 2017

Save the Date

Centre of Comparative, European and International Law of the University of Lausanne is honored to host the Swiss Day 2017. Sponsored by Homburger AG, the Swiss Day will take place on February 11, 2017.

This event connects all the Swiss universities for a one-day educational experience of the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot. With the final rounds to be held next April in Vienna, Willem C. Vis Moot is the biggest student competition in the realm of international private law, gathering around 300 universities from all over the world.

The Swiss Day aims to give an early possibility for the Swiss universities to test their arguments in the pleadings in front of the arbitral tribunals, comprised of experienced lawyers, academics and coaches. The Swiss Day will include a key-note speech from a representative of Homburger AG and a social event at the end of the day.
