Based in Neuchâtel Canton, Switzerland, we are one of the major aerial survey companies in Europe, we fly around various countries. We value the quality of our services and are proud of them. Reliability, safety, and professionalism are integral parts of our values. In order to strengthen our organization, we are currently recruiting

Airborne Data Technician (100%)

Charged of carrying out and attaining the missions and the goals of the department as follow:

YOUR MAIN RESPONSIBILITIES WILL INCLUDE

- Data storage management, such as implementation of disks into the system, shipping and follow up,
- Geo-Data Processing duties:
  - Coordination with Authorities according to National Regulations for each European country for restricted data,
  - Initial check, Extraction and Data Copy operation in windows or Linux environment,
  - Assessment and extraction of restricted data according to data security protocols,
  - Data treatment including removal or modification (e.g. pixelization) of restricted data,
  - Final quality checks to ensure compliance of all data delivered to customers,
- Data Base workflow management:
  - Ensure all data and reporting is complete and accurate within required deadline,
  - Identify and research data discrepancies and resolve appropriately,
  - Develop and maintain quality relationships and communication with client teams,
  - Effectively manipulate data base to produce informative reports,
- Sensor Maintenance and Support Duties:
  - Coordinate maintenance works for Ortho and Oblique cameras with the camera provider,
  - Execute maintenance tasks in cooperation with the camera provider,
  - Help with sensor installation and troubleshooting, participate to flight when necessary.

PROFILE AND COMPETENCIES

- General understanding or interest about spatial data, data collection in aerial surveying,
- Skills and interest to work with computer hardware (experience with server),
- Mechanical skills,
- IT skills : PDF Creator, Jeppview, Zip Software, Paragon (Linux disk reader), VBA (Visual Basic), Globalmapper, QGIS (Quantum Graphical Information System), Vet64, Videoconference tools, Google Earth,
- Proficient use of Microsoft office tools,
- French and English proficient and fluent, German or other European languages is a plus,
- Excellent reputation with clean criminal record and extract from the debt collection register,
- Patient, flexible, organized, rigorous and accountable,
- Excellent diplomacy and communication skills,
- Solution-oriented and able to work independently,
- Swiss or European Citizen and based in Neuchatel canton or willing to relocate

WE OFFER

- An interesting challenge in an ambitious, dynamic and progressing company
- Competitive salary in line with Equal pay standards
- Work location: Colombier

Interested? Please do not hesitate to send your application including cover letter, certificates, and detailed CV by e-mail to job@sfsaviation.ch latest on 27th December 2023.