

30.08.2019
UNIL – Anthropole – 4078

DISCUSSING SEMIOTICS
RETHINKING THE HUMANITIES
(round-table conference)

13.30–15.00

SESSION I

Why semiotics?..

(presenation of the round-table conference by Ekaterina Velmezova)

Kalevi Kull (University of Tartu)

Phi-science(s), sigma-science(s), and their combination(s):
Positioning semiotics

Alain Perusset (University of Neuchâtel)

Semiotics, ally of choice to produce relevant categories

Michail Maiatsky (University of Lausanne)

Les désamours de la sémiotique

Ekaterina Velmezova (University of Lausanne)

From the prehistory of a “holistic science”

15.00 – 15.30

COFFEE BREAK

15.30–16.45

SESSION II

Malika Jara (University of Lausanne)

Serge Karcevski and Charles Bally about signs

Anna Isanina (University of Lausanne)

Two schools in the Soviet translation history:
Two concepts of sign?

Sébastien Moret (University of Lausanne)

Semiotics and interlingusitics:
What signs does an artificial language need?

Final discussion