Description des tâches

The recruited person will contribute to the research group(s) 'Urban Studies' and/or 'Development, societies, environments' through teaching assistance and PhD research.

At least 50% of the working time will be dedicated to own doctoral research.

50% of the working time will be dedicated to teaching assistance at the Bachelor and Master's levels in regional and urban geography.

Profil souhaité

- Master (or equivalent) in Human Geography or a related social science field
- Capacity for empirical research (qualitative/quantitative); preferably in a transition economy country.
- Great interest in conducting a PhD thesis work on urban struggles and urban social movements
- Motivation to assist teaching at the Bachelor and Master's levels
- Organisational skills
- Fluency in French and English; knowledge of a Slavic language would be welcome.

Dossier de candidature

Please send an electronic application to Mrs Christelle Monnet (christelle.monnet@unil.ch) containing the following items:

- A letter of motivation
- A full CV
- Details of two people who have agreed to supply references for the candidate (address, telephone number, email)
- A copy of university degrees and grades
- An electronic version of the Master's thesis and scientific publications, if any
- A PhD proposal of 3–4 pages (knowing that the proposal will be further developed after the recruitment)

For additional information, please contact Dr. Christophe Mager (christophe.mager@unil.ch).

Remarques

Seeking to promote an equitable representation of men and women among its staff, the University encourages applications from women.
