

Consequences of the CJEU 'Danish cases' of 26 February 2019, Webinar Thursday 3 September 2020 from 10h00 to 11h45, Tax Policy Center, University of Lausanne

Dear Colleague,

We are pleased to invite you on Zoom webinar on Thursday 3 September which will be on

“The consequences of the CJEU “Danish Cases” of 26 February 2019 (C115/16 and C116/16)”

This Zoom webinar analyses the impact of the CJEU 'Danish' cases (C-115/16 and C-116/16) on the case law of domestic courts, both EU members and third states, as well as administrative guidelines published in reaction.

The Webinar will be free to attend but registration is required. The program is not final and subject to change in case of new developments.

Panelists are :

- Prof. Robert J. Danon – Chair (Tax Policy Center, University of Lausanne)
- Prof. Luc De Broe - CJEU Decisions C-115/16 and C-116/16 (KU Leuven, Of Counsel Deloitte Legal)
- Prof. Daniel Gutmann - French Conseil d'État decisions no. 423810 and others (Partner CMS Francis Lefebvre, Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne)
- Ms Margriet Lukkien - Dutch Supreme Court decision no. 18/00219, 10 January 2020 and Lower Court of Haarlem decisions 2020/5317 and 2020/5318 (Partner Loyens & Loeff)
- Prof. Guglielmo Maisto - Italian Supreme Court decision no. 14756 (Founding Partner Maisto e Associati, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, sede di Piacenza)
- Prof. Adolfo Martin Jimenez - Spanish 'Tribunal Económico-Administrativo Central' decisions (Universidad de Cádiz, Of Counsel Broseta)
- Mr Benjamin Malek - Swiss Supreme Court decision 2C_354/2018 (PhD Candidate, Tax Policy Center, University of Lausanne)
- Prof. Ana Paula Dorado - Closing Remarks (University of Lisbon, General Editor Inter-tax)

For the registration, please click here. Should you not have a linkedin account please register at the following e-mail address : taxpolicy@unil.ch

We look very much forward to your attendance.

Yours sincerely,

Prof. Dr. Robert J. Danon
Director Tax Policy Center
University of Lausanne